Dear Parents/Guardians:

Welcome to West Street School! It is with sincere excitement that I write to you today. We will meet soon. My name is Lillian E. Torres. I am the West Street School Principal. I am honored to have the opportunity to launch an exciting innovative program at our community school district.

At West Street School the faculty and staff will do everything possible to provide an educational environment that will enable your children to be successful. We will strive to provide a safe and peaceful place for all students. The home-school connection will be vital at West Street School. Please do your very best to be an informed and active parent at our school.

West Street School will begin at 8:15 a.m. and will end at 2:50 p.m. The first day of school will be Thursday September 4th.

I know we will have a very exciting and productive year. I look forward to meeting you soon.

Sincerely,

Lillian E. Torres
