

Newburgh Enlarged City School District
 Administrative Compensation Report

The Newburgh Enlarged City School District educates approximately 11,000 students in kindergarten through twelfth grade, making it one of the largest school districts in New York State. The Superintendent, Deputy Superintendent and three Assistant Superintendents provide overall direction for more than 1,500 salaried employees and administer budgets totaling more than $297,000,000 across operating funds. This administrative team is responsible to the Board of Education for systematic information, prudent direction and energetic leadership in advancing the education of Newburgh's children through the best use of the public resources entrusted to their care.

The Superintendent, Deputy Superintendent and Assistant Superintendents hold individual, renewable employment contracts with the Board of Education and are not subject to tenure. Compensation and benefits are set annually by the Board of Education. Compensation and benefits for principals and other administrators are set through a legally provided process of collective negotiations. These positions are subject to tenure.
