LOCATIONS & TIMES: Temple Hill Academy: 3:20PM to 4:20PM

ANTICIPATED START DATE: January 24, 2018 (Tues., Wed. & Thurs.) to May 30, 2018
Contingent upon student enrollment and funding from the Empire State After-School Grant. All are encouraged to apply. Preference will be given to teachers at Temple Hill Academy. All staff MUST attend orientation and/or professional development.

The Hudson Valley Writing Project at the Research Foundation of SUNY New Paltz (HVWP), in partnership with the Newburgh Enlarged City School District (NECSD), will offer “lab-based” professional development for current K-12 teachers working within the NECSD’s district-wide ACES Program. HVWP teacher leaders will work with students and their program teachers to connect reading to strong writing skills and creative writing while introducing new genres and topics to foster literacy skills.

HVWP will design, lead, and evaluate three, 2-hour lab sessions held on January 23, 24, and 25, 2018 at Temple Hill Academy from 3:20-5:20 PM. NECSD faculty will assist HVWP teacher leaders within each of these session and then participate in a 30-minute debrief session guided by HVWP teacher leaders from 5:20-5:50 PM.

On Friday, January 26, 2018 from 3:20-5:50 PM, NECSD teachers will complete an additional session of professional development to solidify their learning and to apply and to design and develop additional writing curriculum for the ACES Program.

NECSD will oversee and administer student enrollment and participation. HVWP will oversee and administer Certificates of Completion for CTLE hours for NECSD teachers who attend in full.

REMUNERATION: As per Schedule “O” of the NTA Collective Bargaining Agreement
